JAMES JORDAN BOYS & GIRLS CLUB

The Chicago Bulls announced a $4 million donation to build a recreation and education facility for children in memory of James Jordan, father of former Bulls guard, Michael Jordan. Plans for the James Jordan Boys & Girls Club call for the City of Chicago to provide land within the Strategic Neighborhood Action Program (SNAP) area. The future site will be near Madison Street and Hoyne Avenue, two blocks west of the United Center.

The James Jordan Boys & Girls Club will be a 40,000-square-foot, two-story youth and family development center containing a computer learning lab, a gymnasium, dance and game room areas, Head Start/Day Care Center and classroom facilities for an alternative high school program. The club will be constructed with funds donated by the Chicago Bulls charity arm, CharitaBulls.®

The club will offer educational development, cultural enrichment, social recreation, and health and physical education programs for an estimated 4,000 neighborhood youth and their families. It also will provide special programs for older teens and young adults, 19-25 years of age, emphasizing career-building skills.

Construction of the James Jordan Boys & Girls Club will begin in spring 1995 and is scheduled for completion in early 1996.

TEX WINTER

Assistant Coach

Entering his 10th season with the Bulls and 48th season as a coach at the Division I collegiate or professional level — the longest tenure of any active coach in college or professional basketball ... started his illustrious coaching career right out of the University of Southern California where he played for Sam Berry on a team that included Alex Hannum (longtime NBA and ABA coach) and Bill Sharman (former Boston Celtics great) ... Tex was Kansas State's first full-time assistant coach and worked under Jack Gardner from 1947 to 1951 — the 1950-51 Kansas State Wildcats lost to the University of Kentucky for the National Championships, in Minneapolis ... from K-State, he was named head coach at Marquette in 1952 which at that time at 28-years-old made him the youngest major college coach in the country ... he worked at Marquette two years before returning to Kansas State as head coach in 1953 ... he served as head coach there for 15 years and had an overall record of 265-117 (a 70 percent win record, and won eight Big 8 championships) ... the 1957-58 Kansas State team defeated the University of Kansas (with Wilt Chamberlain) to win the Big 8 championship ... Tex was named National UPI Coach of the Year in the 1958-59 season and rated Kansas State the #1 team in the nation by both UPI and AP ... Winter left Kansas State for the University of Washington in 1968 where his teams compiled a 45-35 record over the three years he coached the Huskies ... was named head coach of the San Diego Rockets of the NBA in 1971 and became the Houston Rockets first coach when the team moved to that city prior to the 1971-72 season ... resigned his position as head coach midway through his second season in Houston with a desire to return to the college ranks ... he became Northwestern University's head coach in 1973 and remained there for five years ... from Northwestern he moved to the head coaching job at California State University-Long Beach ... in his five years at Long Beach, he earned a 78-69 record ... Winter retired from college coaching at the close of the 1983 season — a year in which he served as president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches ... had served on the organization's Board of Directors for 18 years, longer than any coach in history ... Dale Brown at Louisiana State University convinced Tex to come out of retirement to help him as an assistant coach and consultant ... Winter worked at LSU for two years and then retired again only to have Bulls' Vice President of Basketball Operations Jerry Krause ask him to join the Bulls as an assistant coach and consultant in 1985 ... Tex, 72, and his wife Nancy reside in Bannockburn ... they have three sons — Russell (42), Chris (40) and Brian (38) — who have given them two grandsons.

'Da Bulls Ain't The Only Winners In This Town.

THE ALL - NEW DODGE INTREPID IS JUST ONE OF THE MANY FLEET FAVORITES THAT NAPLETON BUYERS WIN WITH.

NAPLETON FLEET GROUP clients have also run up some pretty impressive scores, too.

CORPORATE automotive fleet buyers who bring their game plans to Napleton know they can count on single-source deals that are handled locally, delivered nationally and priced way below the competition.

NAPLETON has been a major player in the National Automotive League for more than four decades. So call us. Find out what it's like to win in a game that's not just a spectator sport.

This isn't the only computer center on the West side that's important to us.

There's another brand new computer center just blocks away at the Chicago Library System's Near West Side branch. It was made possible by one of our community service grants.

This isn't the only way the Chicago Bulls and the NBA are encouraging Chicago area students to "Stay In School." Other community service activities include our Adopt-A-School Program, Perfect Attendance Rewards, College Scholarship Awards and ongoing support of local educational programs through our umbrella non-profit organization, CharitaBulls.

It's all part of our firm belief in the power of higher education. Because lighting up the hearts and minds of our kids is just as important as lighting up the new United Center scoreboard.

1993-94 SEASON SUMMARY

NOVEMBER (6-7)

The Bulls faced an uphill climb as the 1993-94 season began, with the retirement of Michael Jordan and the injured list status of Scott Williams and John Paxson. Add in Scottie Pippen missing all but three of November's 13 games, and the Bulls were defeated seven times for a rare losing month. Chicago's big undoing was a 2-5 West Coast road trip, with the only wins coming against the LA Lakers (88-86 Nov. 19) and Dallas (108-85 on Nov. 26). The Bulls, who suffered through a pair of three-game losing streaks, saved the best for last, drowning Phoenix 132-113 at Chicago Stadium on Nov. 30, as Pippen returned to the lineup from his ankle injury to score 29 points, collect 11 rebounds and pass off for six assists. In the road win over the Lakers, Horace Grant gathered in a career-high 23 rebounds and tipped in the game-winning shot. B.J. Armstrong was the team leader in scoring (18.9 ppg) and assists (4.5 apg) for the month. Rookie Toni Kukoc stepped right in with 15.0 ppg and 4.2 rpg.

DECEMBER (12-2)

Despite an anticipated drop in victories this season, the Bulls continued to defy the odds in December by winning 12 of their 14 games, giving them the second-winningest month in team history. Chicago reeled off 10 straight wins between Dec. 10 and Dec. 29, helping the Bulls pull within 1½ games of first-place Atlanta in the Central Division by the close of the month. Four significant wins at Chicago Stadium during the 10-game streak came against Cleveland (93-84 on Dec. 11), New York (98-86 on Dec. 17), San Antonio (102-90 on Dec. 18) and Orlando (95-93 on Dec. 25 in front of a national TV audience, as Toni Kukoc hit the winning shot in closing seconds). Scottie Pippen's return from an ankle injury fueled the Bulls' surge, as he registered a pair of triple-doubles and led the team-leading 12.8 rpg, scored a career-high 31 points in a 108-98 win at Boston on Dec. 15. B.J. Armstrong also chipped in with averaged of 16.2 ppg and 5.1 apg.

JANUARY (11-3)

The Bulls put together the best record in the Eastern Conference in January, winning 11 of 14 games and moving within one game of Atlanta in the Central Division. A seven-game winning streak that began with a 107-91 home victory over Utah on Jan. 14 and carried through to a 92-86 win a Detroit on Jan. 24, boosted Chicago's successful month. A 113-96 win at Chicago Stadium over Milwaukee on Jan. 28 increased the Bulls' home winning skein to 17 straight games for the season. Two Chicago players were elected as starters for the East team at the All-Star Game in Minnesota — Scottie Pippen, who led the team in scoring (22.3 ppg) and assists (5.4 apg) for the month and B.J. Armstrong (13.9 ppg). Also having a strong month for the Bulls in the frontcourt was Horace Grant (13.4 ppg, team-high 10.5 rpg).

FEBRUARY (8-6)

Mixed results told the story for the Bulls in February, as they began the month winning five of six games, but then dropped back a bit with four losses in their last seven games, winning eight of 14 games altogether. Chicago started the month on the six-game road trip, where the Bulls went 5-1, defeating Denver, Utah, Golden State, the LA Clippers and Milwaukee. The only loss on the trip came at Phoenix, 89-88 on Feb. 6, in a nationally televised game on NBC. Scottie Pippen, B.J. Armstrong and Horace Grant all were members of the East All-Star squad in Minnesota, and Pippen ended up winning MVP honors for the game, after scoring 29 points and grabbing 11 rebounds in leading the East to a 127-118 victory. In addition, Toni Kukoc played in the Schick Rookie Game and Steve Kerr finished third in the AT&T Long Distance Shootout. Pippen paced the Bulls with 22.3 ppg and 5.7 apg for the month, Grant had 15.1 ppg and a team-high 10.8 rpg and Armstrong 14.7 ppg and 4.4 apg.

MARCH (9-6)

Shaking off the effects of a five-game losing streak that carried over into the early part of March, the Bulls rallied to win eight of their last 10 games, picking up nine wins overall in 15 games. Chicago snapped its losing streak with a convincing 116-95 home win over division-leading Atlanta on March 9, as Scottie Pippen hit for a season-high 39 points. Highlighting the Bulls' five-game winning streak in the middle of the month were victories over Orlando (108-98 on March 15), Boston (101-100 on March 16) and league-leading Seattle (87-84 on March 18). The Bulls earned their 10th straight trip to the NBA Playoffs by virtue of a 106-103 win over Philadelphia on March 29. Pippen was the team leader in scoring (22.5 ppg) and assists (4.6), and Horace Grant contributed 15.2 ppg and a team-leading 10.3 rpg.

APRIL (9-3)

The Bulls closed out the 1993-94 regular season exceeding all expectations and finishing April 9-3 and with a 55-27 record overall. Chicago was in the hunt for the Eastern Conference number one seed after winning 10 straight games from March 26 until the streak ended with a 118-101 loss at Orlando on April 17. The Bulls then moved into position to take the East after they beat the Atlanta Hawks 87-70 at the Stadium on April 18. But the Bulls dropped their next game 104-94 in double overtime versus Boston on April 22 to take away any chance of finishing an incredible first place in the East. The Bulls didn't finish the season the way they would have like as they lost their last two games, both at home (April 22 vs. Boston and April 24 vs. New York) and three of the last four games overall. Scottie Pippen led the Bulls in scoring in April with a 23.3 average and in assists at 6.3 apg. Horace Grant led the Bulls with a 9.8 rebound average for the month.

MEDIA INFORMATION

As the Chicago Bulls enter their 29th season in the league and first year in the United Center, the team appreciates the coverage and support from the Chicagoland media. We look forward to assisting the media again this season. In an effort to provide a professional work environment, the Bulls have established the following guidelines for the season:

CREDENTIALS: We will honor all reasonable requests for credentials from recognized newspapers, magazines, radio and television outlets. The only season passes that will be honored at the United Center are Bulls season credentials and NBA season credentials. Each of those credentials will admit the bearer to the United Center, the upstairs press box, press row, press work room and both locker rooms. However, MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE BULLS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING. Please make seating requests at least 48 hours prior to the game.

Individual single game press and photo credentials can be secured for accredited media members by calling the Bulls Media Services office no later than 5:00 pm the day BEFORE a game (5:00 pm Friday for a weekend game). Single passes can be picked up at Gate 3½ on the northeast corner of the United Center.

Credentials must be visibly worn in the United Center to facilitate proper access to designated areas. In all cases, season and single game passes are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the United Center and the forfeiture of the credential.

PRESS WORK ROOM: The press work room is located on the service level in the northwest corner of the United Center. A meal will be served in this area prior to every Bulls game. Working media with valid credentials will be allowed into the press work room. The work area is equipped with electrical outlets.

SERVICES: A pre-game meal will be served in the press work room. Prior to the game, the media will also be provided with game notes and programs. All statistical services including play-by-play, quarter statistics, halftime and final box scores, and postgame quotes will be distributed at press row and in the upstairs press box. Fax service is provided before, during or after the game by Tom Wiscarz.

LOCKER ROOM: In accordance with NBA policy, the Bulls and visitor's locker rooms will be open to the media up to 45 minutes before the game and 10 minutes after the end of the game. Only working media with a valid credential will be admitted to the locker rooms. The Bulls locker room is located on the north end of the service level, while the visitor's locker room is located adjacent to the press work room.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Season passes will be issued to accredited photographers from large circulation Chicagoland daily newspapers. Photographers from other newspapers or magazines wishing to work specific games must request single-game passes. Freelance photographers needing credentials must submit a letter with a specific assignment from a publication.

POST-GAME GUESTS: Please be sure to list THREE choices for radio and television post-game interviews. This will assure a guest in case the first choice is unavailable.

AUTOGRAPHS: No autographs of players or coaches are allowed.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

INTRODUCTION

The Chicago Bulls organization receives exceptional support from its fans and takes seriously its responsibility to "give" back to the community. The Bulls have sought to be actively involved in programs that will improve the quality of life for all Chicagoans. The Chicago Bulls organization has aggressively sought to be a good neighbor and a good corporate citizen.

The Bulls organization raises and distributes more than $600,000 per year in charitable grants, scholarships and in the support of meaningful programs. The Bulls are involved in the Adopt-A-School program; stage parties and events for underprivileged children; participate in job fair programs/career sessions; support the Chicago Wheelchair Bulls basketball team; host an exchange program with the Orlando Magic and the Boys & Girls Clubs; and look for ways to actively participate in community affairs and make a difference. The following pages highlight the Chicago Bulls community services' efforts.

CHARITABULLS

CharitaBulls,® the Chicago Bulls non-profit charity organization, was created in October of 1987 as a vehicle through which the Chicago Bulls could express thanks and appreciation to the community by raising funds for a variety of worthy causes. Among the organizations benefiting from CharitaBulls fundraising activities include:

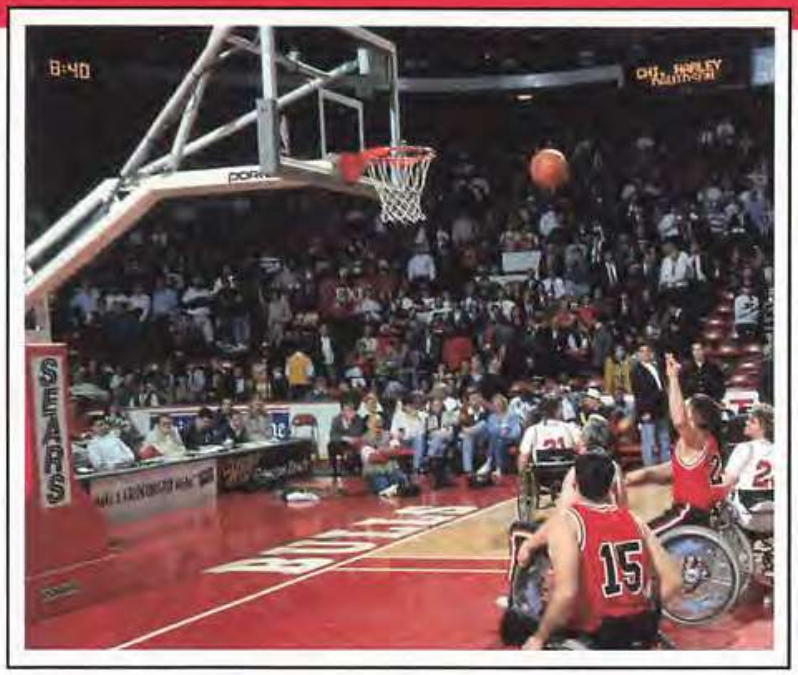
CHICAGO PARK DISTRICT COURT RENOVATION PROGRAM

In 1990, CharitaBulls® pledged $1,000,000 to the Chicago Park District to repair and refurbish damaged city basketball courts. To date over 130 courts have been renovated. This project has provided thousands of people with recreational opportunities that would otherwise not have been available, and has provided kids with an alternative to drugs and gangs.

ILLINOIS SPECIAL OLYMPICS

The Chicago Bulls and Illinois Special Olympics expanded its long-term relationship in 1991 as CharitaBulls® became a co-sponsor of the Illinois Special Olympics District and State Basketball Tournaments. CharitaBulls® helps fund the annual eight district and two state tournaments and will continue to do so at least through 1997. CharitaBulls' annual co-sponsorship of $25,000 helps enrich the lives of these special athletes.

CHICAGO PUBLIC LIBRARY



CharitaBulls® announced a new partnership this year with the Chicago Public Library System. CharitaBulls® donated $50,000 to adopt the Near West Side Branch of the Chicago Public Library system that will open in November of 1994. CharitaBulls' contribution helped fund the new library's computer center. We are hopeful that through donating to educational programs, we can contribute in some small way to breaking the cycle of poverty that is far too prevalent in our society.

OTHER RECIPIENTS

Other non-profit organizations that were recipients of funds raised through CharitaBulls® this past year include: Boys Hope, March of Dimes, Anti-Cruelty Society, Inner City Foundation, Helping Hand Rehabilitation Center, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Chicago Youth Success Foundation, Robert H. Lurie Cancer Center at Northwestern University, Little City, Chicago Cares, Better Boys Foundation, Off the Street Club, Mercy Home, Chicago Abused Women Coalition, Deborah's Place, Henry Horner Boys and Girls Club, American Brain Tumor Association, Partnership Against Racism, One-to-One Learning Center and more.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/PROGRAMS

CharitaBulls® is supported by various means, with three major events contributing to the majority of funds raised. The Annual Tip-Off Luncheon is a preseason banquet that brings the team and the fans together for a preview and inside look at the upcoming season. Our Dinner/Auction, FestaBulls, is a fundraiser with fans and players of which the proceeds are directed to CharitaBulls.® Our citywide basketball tournament, the Shoot-the-Bull 3 on 3 Classic,™ attracts thousands of players and spectators. Held each summer in Chicago's Grant Park, the Shoot-the-Bull 3 on 3 Classic™ donates its proceeds to the Bulls charity and the Illinois Special Olympics.

Funds are also raised through other means that include the following: personal scoreboard messages (birthdays, anniversaries) at Bulls home games are available for a $100 donation; private donations are welcomed; the Bulls organization has a funds matching program; and several sponsors participate in the CharitaBulls® Corporate Sponsor Program and contribute money based on the number of Bulls victories, dunks, blocked shots, steals, etc. made by the team.

SCHOOL PROGRAMS

STAY IN SCHOOL

The NBA's Stay in School program was created in 1989 to address the critical issue of high school dropouts. A joint effort of the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association, the Stay in School program includes several national and local elements designed to deliver the Stay in School message to students, particularly those in middle school. The Bulls have an active Stay in School program on a local level that encourages students in the Chicagoland area to achieve perfect attendance. The Bulls and Pillsbury run an attendance program for elementary school students and the Bulls and Sears host an attendance program for middle and high school students.

CHICAGO BULLS HOOP SHOOT FOR EASTER SEALS

Middle schools and high schools are able to participate in this program which runs from October through March. Students who participate collect pledges based on the number of baskets made from anywhere on the court in a three minute period. School competitions are held through physical education departments and proceeds go to Easter Seals. The Hoop Shoot promotes athletics in the schools, while also supporting children and adults with disabilities.

BOB LOVE

Former Bulls player, Bob Love, is the Bulls Director of Community Relations and is a popular motivational speaker who eloquently describes his personal success in overcoming a speech handicap. Love is made available by the Bulls to deliver his inspirational message at schools, as well as many other community events throughout the year. Love makes over 500 appearances a year at schools, charity events, social service agencies and youth programs.

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL

As a part of the NBA's Stay in School Program, the Bulls annually adopt a Chicago Public School to help students better their education and reduce the number of kids dropping out of school. Incentives in the form of tickets, autographed memorabilia, and scholarships are donated for kids who achieve perfect attendance, grade improvements, etc. In addition, players and management staff make several visits to the school throughout the year. This year the Bulls have adopted Herbert School, an elementary and middle school that is located several blocks from the United Center.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Bulls strongly support higher education and thus each season the Bulls and CharitaBulls offer three $2,000 scholarships to high school seniors who plan to attend college. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic excellence as well as extra curricular efforts. Furthermore, the United Center offers $20,000 in scholarships to Malcolm X College students each year.

SCORE WITH SCHOOL

"Score with School" is a new motivational program for students within the Chicago Public School system that was tipped off in September, 1994. Run in conjunction with the Chicago White Sox and Northwestern University's Kellogg Graduate School, this program utilizes kids love of sports to promote better study habits and also provides teachers with alternative tools to motivate their students. The program focuses on reading, improvement and essay writing, and uses tickets, merchandise, player appearances and field trips as incentives.

CHOICES

During the 93-94 season the Bulls

teamed with Sprint Yellow Pages to bring the CHOICES program to Chicago. CHOICES is a series of two-hour "reality seminars" for ninth grade students about the importance of decision making. This program will again be available to schools during the '94-95 season.

HOLIDAY EVENTS

FOOD DRIVE

Every December the Bulls, in conjunction with the Mayor's Office of Special Events and the Chicago Anti-Hunger Federation, host a food drive at a Bulls home game. Approximately two tons of food are collected each year and distributed to Chicago area food kitchens and shelters for the homeless.

HOLIDAY KIDS PARTY

In keeping with the holiday spirit, the Bulls players and coaches invite two hundred underprivileged kids to visit the team in December at the Bulls practice facility. Lunch and souvenirs are provided for the kids as well as the opportunity to spend time with Bulls players.

OTHER PROGRAMS

CORPORATE TICKET SECTION PROGRAM

Approximately 200 people per night are invited to attend a Bulls home game, compliments of one of eight corporations that sponsor a ticket section in the United Center as part of the Bulls Charity/Corporate Ticket Section Program. These seats are reserved every game for local kids groups and various non-profit organizations; groups that otherwise would not be able to attend a game.

GATORADE SUMMER BASKETBALL CLINICS

Each summer, the Bulls and Gatorade team up to present a series of ten free clinics for youngsters throughout the Chicagoland area. Two Bulls players and/or coaches conduct each session and teach the fundamentals of the game. In conjunction with the NBA's "Don't Foul Out" and "Stay in School" programs, an integral part of each clinic features a message from the players urging the importance of a positive lifestyle. Players emphasize the necessity of a college education and encourage students to remain in school and away from drugs. This program annually reaches thousands of kids throughout the Chicagoland area.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Throughout the year, contributions of Bulls memorabilia are given to charity organizations, community fundraisers, block parties and more. Items donated are typically used as auction items, raffle and/or door prizes. The Bulls also provide incentives in the form of posters, magazines, pens, bookmarks, workbooks and stickers for schools to reward student achievements. The Bulls have complimentary Stay in School paraphernalia available to schools as well.

WHEELCHAIR BULLS

The Bulls help sponsor one of the nation's best wheelchair basketball teams, the Chicago Wheelchair Bulls. The Wheelchair Bulls devote their time to help others realize that wheelchair-restricted people can lead active, productive lives. They participate in numerous charity events, perform at Bulls games and compete against other wheelchair teams on a national and international level. During 1994 the Wheelchair Bulls formed a junior team as well.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Throughout each season, Bulls players and coaches help non-profit organizations promote their services by putting together public service announcements for both television and radio. Past PSA's have benefitted the YMCA, National Society for the Prevention of Child Abuse, Special Olympics, Children's Memorial Hospital and more.

MAKE-A-WISH/STARLIGHT FOUNDATIONS

The Chicago Bulls work closely with the Make-a-Wish and Starlight Foundations, both national charity organizations that grant the wishes of chronically and terminally ill children. Each year many of these children are brought to both home and away games to have their wishes granted and to meet Bulls players.

TEAM MATES/CHICAGO BULLS WIVES ORGANIZATION

The Bulls wives organization, the Team Mates, is comprised of wives of front office employees, announcers, players, coaches and basketball personnel. The organization has a philanthropic purpose and holds several fundraising events each year including a holiday ornament sale and a jazzercize event to support breast cancer research. This year the Team Mates are producing a cookbook that will be available in October, 1994, and the proceeds will go to charity.

FAN SERVICES

BENNY THE BULL/LUVABULLS/INCREDIBULLS/PLAYERS

Benny the Bull, the Incredibulls and the Luvabulls are available for personal appearances. They frequently attend community parades, walk-a-thons, school assemblies, children's hospital visits, private parties, company events, fundraising benefits and more. When schedules permit, Bulls players, coaches and management staff, make public appearances for charity events, autograph sessions, speaking engagements, and other various events.
